What's This All About?

The Payment Card Settlement is an historic antitrust class-action settlement that provides some relief for millions of U.S. merchants after years of paying allegedly inflated Visa and Mastercard interchange fees.

The Claims Period Is Starting Soon.

Class members are encouraged to watch for a claim form next month to claim their share of the court-approved $5.5 billion settlement.

Making It Easy To Claim Your Share.

Class members will begin receiving claim forms by mail in December. It can take as little as five minutes to submit a claim. The claims process is designed to be quick and easy for business owners so that they can claim 100% of their share without the need for third-party assistance.
